
Call to protest

Free Lucy Letby!

17 March 2025, 09:30
Liverpool Town Hall,
High Street, L2 3SW

A mountain of evidence now shows that Lucy Letby's conviction for murdering babies was a complete frame-up. Every passing day, it is becoming clearer that Lucy Letby is innocent and that her conviction is a travesty of justice on par with the Post Office scandal, the Guildford Four and Birmingham Six.

Yet, the Thirlwall Inquiry is not investigating the truth but is rubber-stamping this wrongful conviction. It will resume on 17 March to hear closing submissions.

Now is the time for a public campaign to free Lucy Letby.

We are calling on the trade union movement: no more silence!
Take a stand in defence of a nurse who is being scapegoated!

Come out and protest outside the Thirlwall Inquiry in Liverpool on Monday, 17 March.
